Red-house upper town. A few days before we passed along, the old Bishop of Durango had an adventure near Tome, which considerably imperilled his life. He was crossing the river in his carriage with his chaplain and traveling companion, Dr. Luis Rubeo, at what he supposed to be a regular ford, but where, in fact, the river was quite deep. About midway of the stream the water took the carriage off its understanding, and, tilting it over on one side, poured into the interior. But, happily, the bishop was enabled to force his way through the carriage window and scramble to the outside, from which perilous position he was further rescued, at considerable position he was further rescued, at considerable personal risk, by the stout arms of his travel-ing friends. After getting safely on terra firma, the old man treated the matter with great

Bishop Zubiria, in his visits to the New Mexican church and people, cannot be accused of any thing like indolence, timidity, or partiality. He visits every village and hamlet, no matter how small and contemptible, how remote or perilous to reach. During his last year's visit he often ran narrow risks of his life in various he often ran narrow risks of his life in various ways; but he appears to be as fearless as he is fortunate. At the remote peublo of Zuni, nearly two hundred miles west of the Del Norte, the brave old man had scarcely concluded his episcopal duties and quitted the pueblo, before it was invested by a cloud of Navajos, who kept up an incessant warfare upon the unhappy Zunians for a space of fifteen days, murdering and plundering with no other limit but the incomplete resistance of their feebler and less numerous victims. Had he been delayed another hour, the probabilities are, that notwithother hour, the probabilities are, that notwith-standing the small escort he had with him, he would have been irretrievably cut off.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH

WASHINGTON:

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 25.

Where is DON NICHOLAS P. TRIST, the great Treaty-maker, who went to Mexico to make a treaty, and who made it, even after our Government had sent word to him not to do so, and had recalled him? He started for Mexico, resolved or instructed to pay no respect to Major General Scott. But when he approached near unto "the greatest Captain of the Age," he fell to admiring him, and wrote home to that purport. Don't make the treaty, then, exclaimed the Government! Ah, but said Don Nicholas, it is what I came for. General Butler threatened to march him out of the country, with a military escort. Never you mind, General, said Don Nicholas, the treaty must be made; and it was made and sent home. It was sent to the Senate with the particulars, and the Senate said let it stand, and it became law. Huzza, say we, then, for Don Nicholas P. Trist! Where is

THE SPEAKERSHIP .- The next House of Representatives will have a very large Democratic majority. Of course a Democrat will be elected Speaker. The most prominent members elect spoken of for that distinguished station are Mr. Burt, of South Carolina, Mr. Disney, of Ohio, and Mr. Linn Boyd, of Kentucky; but we shall not be surprised to find Colonel Bissell, also a Democrat, of Illinois, coming up among the tallest candidates for the Speakership. He commanded one of the Illinois regiments which fought so bravely and successfully at Buena Vista. He was in the last Congress, where he greatly distinguished himself as an able legislator, a courteous and popular member, and ar eloquent debater, and has been re-elected to the next. Either Mr. Burt or Mr. Bissell would make a first-rate Speaker, pure, dignified, impartial, and popular. Either would keep order and command the respect of the House, as indeed would any one of all the gentlemen we have named. The certainty that no Whig can be elected may, however, tempt to a schism among the Democrats; but it is not probable. POTOMAC JAUSTINUS. - The decks of the steamer Thomas Collver are the scenes of much pleasure at this season. Thousands upon thousands of citizens and strangers enjoy the delightful excursions it makes, look upon the pleasant scenery of the river, and visit Alexandria, Fort Washington and Mt. Vernon. No one who ever comes to our city should omit a journey to the latter place, where may be seen the grave of Washington, the home in which he dwelt, and the many objects once familiar to him. At the present moment these excursions are peculiarly delightful, and happy throngs of young and old are ever eager to unite in them. The next excursion is appointed for to-morrow morning at half-past eleven o'clock.

The printers and bookbinders, and all their assistants, are very often entrusted with secrets of this confidence by any of them, although legislators and statesmen are often leaky. Telegraph operators are often entrusted with weighty matters-such, sometimes, as they could profit much by imparting; yet we have never known an instance of violated faith. Great men could labor for the means of living. "Give me neither poverty nor riches."

"CATHOLICS AND THE PRESS."-Under this heading a writer in the Catholie Mirror maintains that the press of Baltimore is hostile to the Catholic Religion. The Republican defends itself from the charge.

SCARLET FEVER .- Rubbing the body with fat bacon is a remedy that elicits the commendation of people who have tried it in all parts of this country. Those who test it and prove its efficacy everywhere appear anxious that others shall profit by their experience.

THE ANNEXATION OF CUBA-BETIMOTION OF SLAVERY .- The New Orleans True Delta remarks that " the immediate effect of annexation will be to create an enormous demand for sugar plantations in Cubs, and a commensurate requisition for slave labor to meet the natural and unnatural speculation; that the frontier slave States-Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky Delaware, and Missouri-where slave labor is less valuable and its profitable employment quite precarious, will be tempted by high prices to part with their slave population for deportation, or to supply vacancies made by southern emigration; and that in less than twenty-five years from the date of annexation slavery will cease to exist on the continent, since the cotton and sugar planters of the South could not afford to pay the enormously augmented prices. It also says that, in the event of Cuba being annexed, davery will cease within five years thereafter to have more than a nominal existence in Delaware, Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri, and perhaps Tennessee; and the natural result to he southern States will be the ultimate extinction of slavery, since, deprived of the Congressional, territorial and numerical strength of the States mentioned, they will, thereafter, have no safeguard from the insidious and violent attacks of the North."

DIVIDE AND CONQUER. - If the Powers of Europe believe, as they probably do, that the extension of our territory southward will weaken the bonds of our Union, they will not give much encouragement to any resistance to such extension; and Spain may hold on to Cuba with less tenacity than many are prepared to witness.

DROWNED .- The Republic of this morning states that on Saturday afternoon, while Charles West, (aged about thirty years,) son of Mr. John West, was fishing at the Four-mile Run, he was seized with a fit, and fell into the water. By the time his companions, from whom he had separated, reached the spot, he had sunk to rise no more. Yesterday morning his body was recovered-under the arch-and brought to his father's residence, on Seventh street, near the Centre market, where an inquest was held, and a verdict, we learn, rendered according to the

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—We have regretted to see credit given us for a brief political portrait of the next Congress. We quoted it from the Baltimore Sun, giving credit where due, but by an error in our printing-office this credit was omitted. We do not knowingly commit such acts of larceny, but would as soon think of "prigging" paper and types as the products of an editor's pen.

SALE OF CITY REAL ESTATE .- Charles S. Wallach, esq., we are informed, this morning purchased of Henry M. Morfet, esq., lot three on square five hundred and seventy-three, for $3,719. This lot fronts sixty-four feet on Indiana avenue, runs back two hundred and thirty feet to D street, and contains fourteen thousand eight and seventy-seven square feet. The price is therefore twenty-five cents per foot. The situation is between First and Second streets. We learn further that it is the intention of Mr. Wallach to erect upon this spot next Spring a large and handsome dwelling. The location is most desirable, and the neighborhood is fast improving.

ANOTHER PICTURE BY BOGGS .- We feel proud of the artistic genius of our city. W. B. Boggs, esq., has just completed, and placed for exhibition at Taylor & Maury's, a second " View on the Katskill Mountains." It is an oil painting, and a midsummer scene, about twelve by sixteen inches in size. It is one of the richest little landscapes we ever looked upon, and would prove, oh! se most splendid parlor in our city.

THE CRIMINAL COURT will resume its session to-morrow, when the Day case will be taken up and possibly finally acted upon. The Stettinius and the Powell cases will also be forthwith tried, if the witnesses can be procured. We believe it is the earnest desire of the defendants in both these cases to come to trial as speedily as possible.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—The politicians, says the Philadelphia Ledger, are busy counting the chances of the next Presidential of great importance in this city, yet we have election, let the choice devolve either upon the never heard of an instance of the violation electors or Congress. The following is given as the votes of the several Congressional delegations thus far elected: Democratic-Iowa, Maine, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Delaware, Illinois, Connecticut, Indiana, Kentucky, Alabama, Tennessee-14 States. Whig-Missouri, Vermont, not thus be trusted. Depend upon it, true Florida, Michigan, Massachusetts, North Carohonor and virtue prosper best among the "mid- lina-6 States. Tie-New York, New Hampdling classes," or the intelligent, yet poor, who shire, Rhode Island-3 States. Of the eight remaining States. Arkansas is reported to have elected a Democrat, and will doubtless be joined by Virginia, Mississippi, Texas, and probably by Louisiana and California. Georgia and Maryland uncertain. Each State has one vote, neither more nor less, except when tied.

AN EASY AND CHEAP METHOD OF GETTING MARRIED. - We find the following marriage notice in the New York Tribune, copied from the Skaneateles Democrat:

"Married, on the afternoon of August 12, at Glen Haven Water Cure, by themselves, Wm. L. Chaplin to Miss Theodocia Gilbert, of that establishment."

We believe this is our old acquaintance, Gen Chaplin, of negro-abstracting notoriety in this region. Getting married is much pleasanter than the fate that seemed inevitable to him a vear or so back.

Bulwer says the worst use you can make of a man is to hang him; and we think the best is to marry him to a good wife, who can keep him at home and out of mischief!

General Wool.

The fame of General Wool is not only the oride of this State, of which he is a native and has always been a resident, but it is the pride of the nation. It was but a few days since that a story was widely circulated that a soldier, James Duggan, said to be a Roman Catholic, was tried by a court-martial on a charge of re-fusing to attend a Protestant church—that he was sentenced to pay a fine and to endure a degrading imprisonment-and that Gen. Wool in part approved the sentence.

The facts of the case turned out to be that

Duggan was tried and found guilty of disobedience and insubordination for "leaving his com-pany without permission." But General Wool, prompted by that kindness of humanity for which he is so eminently distinguished, remitted the whole of his sentence except the payment of a fine of five dollars. There was nothing appearing before the court that Duggan was a Roman Catholic, except a casual statement of that fact by one of the witnesses—nothing in the shape of evidence upon which the court was called to pass, or which General Wool could make the subject of review.

gious intolerance. The Catholics of Mexico would repel the charge with indignation if it were made to them. They, and they only, who trembled at the approach of an army of volun-teer troops, many of whom were wild and un-governable at home, and who had entered the army from an adventurous spirit, can appreciate the discipline, the wisdom, and the humanity, which could restrain such a body of men from committing depredations upon their Catholic enemies. We venture to say that such wisdom and such humanity were never before exhibited, under similar circumstances, by any other General of ancient or modern times [Rochester Daily Times.

GEC/RGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, August 23-12 m. 7.he camp meeting of the Methodist Episco-al Church South, at Union Meeting-house, airfax county, is well attended, there being one hundred or more tents on the ground. Throughout the day, yesterday, the ground was crowded with visiters from Washington, Alexandria, Georgetown, and the surrounding ountry. The exercises throughout the day are poken of by persons who were present as highly teresting and impressive; and a portion of hose of the afternoon were of a very solemn character—the burial of a very estimable lady named Gunnel, who lived in the immediate neighborhood, taking place on the ground at at five o'clock, p. m. The very best of order prevailed throughout the day. It breaks up n Thursday morning.

At the Catholic church, yesterday, there was large and intelligent audience to hear the discourse of the Rev. Dr. Ryder.

There is a greater number of private improvenents going on in our town at the present time than has been known for several years past: Among them I notice a fine brick dwelling going up on the west side of Washington street, between West and Stoddard, for one of our nost enterprising mechanics, Mr. J. O. Warner. Mr. W. H. Craig has purchased a handsome piece of property on Beall street, the old family residence of his ancestors for the last sixty years; and, judging from the manner in which he is improving it, he intends it shall be the eastle of the Craigs for sixty years more.

The only improvement of a public character the cemetery at Oak Hill. This lovely spot developes more and more every day the artistic skill of the excellent superintendent and engineer, Captain De la Roche, by whom the whole matter has been planned and executed.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been afflicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief, I fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture," which relieved her of her pain in less than twenty-four hours. I am pleased to say that since she took it she has been free from pain, and she is gradually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restorative properties of this medicine. I believe if it were more extensively used, it would do more good in the removal of such diseases incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed.
